How do we keep racial equity at the center of our work as Montessori educators and advocates? We'll engage our panelists in a conversation about the relationship between policy and racial equity and how we in the Montessori community can more fully serve racially diverse populations.

2:45-3:00 PM – Break

3:00-4:15 PM - Breakout Session 1

1A) State Montessori Verification Programs – A User Guide – with MPPI Staff and Martha Teien, Board President, Colorado Montessori Association.

Are you thinking about developing a Verification process in your state or curious about what it is and how it can benefit schools in your state? Come learn about the various steps in developing a Verification program, considerations as you create the process, and critical relationships to cultivate. Explore when you might need to adapt your process to accommodate the landscape in your state.

1B) Building a Revenue Stream to Support Your State Advocacy Organization – with Tom Bartlett and Sara Gibson, 20 Degrees, Debbie Senoff-Langford, AMS Board member and former AIMS Board President

Building a stable state organization that is prepared to tackle advocacy work can require financial resources. Get started or increase your current revenue with tips from Tom Bartlett and Sara Gibson of 20 Degrees and hear from MPPI advocate Debby Senoff-Langford who solidified a revenue streams for the Association of Illinois Montessori Schools.

4:25-5:30 PM – Breakout Session 2

2A) What is the Next Generation of QRIS and What Does it Mean for Montessori? – with MPPI staff and Tom Layman, ExceleRate Policy Director in the Illinois Governor’s Office of Early Childhood Development

QRIS programs throughout the country are on the cusp of evaluating and reconfiguring their existing QRIS systems. The Montessori community largely missed the opportunity to shape initial QRIS programs but in many states, we’ll have a second chance to give stakeholder input. MPPI welcomes Tom Layman, ExceleRate Policy Director in the Illinois Governor’s Office of Early Childhood Development for a conversation about how states are looking at the effectiveness of their QRIS programs and how they can be transformed to meet goals around bringing the highest quality early childhood experiences to the families with the least access.

2B) Leveraging Research for Policy and Advocacy - Dr. Angela Murray, Director of the Center for Montessori Research at the University of Kansas and Dr. Paige Bray, Director of Montessori Studies and Associate Professor of Early Childhood Education at the University of Hartford

Research can provide critical supports for policy and advocacy work. Come learn about recent studies that demonstrate the effectiveness of Montessori education and how to leverage and communicate research in your conversations with policy makers.
